

Since 1982

50 Dovercliffe Rd. Guelph, ON

The Hellenic Canadian Community of Guelph is a non profit organization that is holding its 20th annual Greek Food Festival in at 50 Dovercliffe Rd. in Guelph from Saturday June 15 - to June 16, 2024.

Our organization has been dedicated to the establishment and maintenance of St. George Greek Orthodox Church and faith since 1982. In addition to this our organization has provided support to many wonderful causes in our local Guelph community and we look forward to doing more to support our community going forward.

Our Festival draws many people from Guelph and surrounding area who come to enjoy traditional Greek cuisine and culture. This year, we are inviting respected business and corporate partners who share our values of Faith, Family and Community to support our cause.

We invite you to become a sponsor of our event!

Each sponsor will receive recognition at our event. Our entrance courtyard will host marketing banners and materials from all our sponsors. Additionally our sponsors will be featured on all our marketing materials decimated to the public and a digital presentation will play throughout our event featuring our sponsors.

Please see our sponsorship packages below.

We look forward to a successful Festival along side our community and business partners.
